Account Access & Security Policy

Users must maintain the confidentiality of their login credentials.
The platform employs two-factor authentication (2FA) for added security.
Repeated failed login attempts trigger temporary account locks.
Users should report unauthorized access or phishing attempts to security@ecommerce-platform.com immediately.
The platform reserves the right to suspend suspicious accounts pending investigation.